Your Palace, Your Place
Welcome & Thanks!

Your Palace, Your Place!
We have long been using this tagline and find that its simple message truly pays tribute to the way our patrons feel about the Palace. We pride ourselves on the positive feedback we receive from those long-time and first-time customers who, upon entering the Palace, have an immediate connection with the theater and begin establishing their own lifelong memories and special moments.

The Board and staff actively work to create a welcoming environment, a friendly atmosphere and a performance experience that rivals all others. Those are just a few of the reasons that the Palace continues to be something personal, unique and special to so many of you.

We dedicate this Annual Report to you, our loyal supporters – who through selfless philanthropy invest in us annually for the betterment of your Palace. You appreciate the value and importance of a vital performing arts center, proudly calling the Palace, your place.

We sincerely thank you for your generosity and entrusting us in the stewardship of your Palace.

YOUR PLACE FOR

Shows & Music

Whether you enjoyed the toe-tapping choreography of 42nd Street or the infectious rhythm of the Temps and Tops, the headline performances of the 2015-2016 season confirmed that the Palace served as your place for shows and more.

Food Channel celebrity Robert Irvine flexed his cooking muscle for a live theater audience, radio icon and host Garrison Keillor sold out the house with his farewell tour of A Prairie Home Companion, and the Beatles reunited on the Palace stage in London’s West End production and tribute show entitled Let It Be.

With over 175 events and activities, including Trivia nights, dance parties and our signature Jazz series, more than 125,000 patrons experienced the Palace and left the theater wanting more.

Local talent Dr. Richard Gruszka of E-2 – An Eagles Experience performs live on stage for Palace 10.1 – Your Party, Your Place.

Top: The fabulous Rachel Z performed in the Poli Club as part of NEAE’s Jazz Series.

Cast members from the national tour of A White Christmas fill the stage with holiday cheer.
Imagine gliding across the Palace stage on a pair of skates or joyfully accepting your high school diploma in front of a packed house. Both serve as memorable experiences and both were just a few of the ways that the Palace showcased itself in 2015-2016, as your place for family and kids.

The Palace consistently strives to engage audiences young and old, while developing long lasting relationships built upon positive experiences and extraordinary memories. Where today’s youth may be more focused on being social online, the Palace, via live entertainment, provides educational connections and family centric programming as an alternative from the virtual world.
Engagement in our community is an ever present principle and a guiding force of the Palace Theater’s mission. Establishing creative ways to entertain and educate our youth, collaborating with various organizations and agencies for the betterment of the community, and making impactful connections with other not-for-profits to advance their causes, is how we reinforce the Palace as your place for learning and community.

The Palace hosted a number of give-back charitable events for agencies such as the United Way of Greater Waterbury and the Greater Waterbury Campership Fund. We supported autism efforts through Light It Up Blue and worked collaboratively to increase breast cancer awareness in conjunction with Are You Dense?

Additionally, our after-school educational program engaged over 50 students for a 6-week period and illustrated how the socially relevant themes of the Broadway musical Ragtime still remain timely, and sadly, relevant today.

YOUR PLACE FOR

Learning & Community
As a venue that originally opened in 1922 and celebrated its grand reopening in 2004, we truly appreciate the depth and breadth of the Palace’s storied history. In an effort to celebrate the past and foster the creation of future memories, the Palace has launched a monthly tour program. Patrons revel in the historic lore of the theater, familiarize themselves with the architectural significance of the venue and learn about the many artists that once graced the Palace stage.

History and memories are made every day at the Palace through its varied programming, private receptions and life affirming events such as weddings. Whether it’s a bride and groom exchanging their vows, a milestone birthday celebration or a family reunion, the Palace prides itself on serving as the preferred location for those special life moments.
